

Dividend Changes For All Closed-End Funds YTD 2021

I have covered distribution changes in the past. Last time we were looking at distribution changes during 2020. It was a generally rough market with the March sell-off. Though the broader indexes recovered swiftly. With Eaton Vance boosting several of their fund's distributions, it was a good reminder to revisit this subject.

Today is the 'master list' of all the distribution changes for the closed-end fund space YTD 2021. The beginning data was taken from 01/01/2021 and this goes through 08/03/2021. To read the full article members of the CEF/ETF Income Laboratory can access it here. There we provide commentary and do a more in-depth dive into the data.

If there is a fund missing, there is a good chance that it was removed for one reason or another. I had to remove or adjust 77 funds for various reasons that we discuss more in the article. Also keeping in mind, I'm only human. If you see an error, please let me know and I'll fix it in potential future posts.

Whether you're a novice or experienced closed-end fund (CEF) and exchange-traded fund (ETF) investor, you've come to the right place.

My goal is to help you benefit from income and arbitrage strategies in CEFs and ETFs, all without having to be an expert, because I do the heavy lifting for you. If that sounds like something you'd be interested in, I hope you'll consider joining us here at CEF/ETF Income Laboratory. Receive articles like this and more first, just as our members are enjoying now. This includes exclusive articles that aren't posted to the public.
